MEMORANDUM TO: Acting Assistant Executive Director

Subject: Security Survey of CIG Installations In Washington.

25X1A

1. In a recent conversation with members of the Security Branch, OCD, [redacted] requested that a draft directive for a security survey of CIG installations in Washington be prepared. The expressed purpose of the survey was to point up, among other weaknesses, the various threats to security inherent in the present housing arrangements, and thus to provide the Director with information to support any future request for improved accommodation.

2. The requested draft directive is transmitted herewith.
